

YOU can volunteer too!

Join the thousands of volunteers who bring life to our mission everyday!

Volunteer with CCS Northwest Island, San Juan, Skagit, Snohomish and Whatcom Counties

Island and Snohomish Counties Volunteer Services

Check out the NW Volunteer Services Facebook page and register to make a profound difference in someone's life—whether keeping in touch as a Phone Buddy, helping with seasonal yard work, getting someone to an appointment or social event, or simply picking up library books or Goodwill donations. We have an urgent need for volunteers to perform those simple household chores that permits our older and disabled neighbors to stay in their homes.

Despite the epidemic, from 3/2020-3/2022, our volunteers complied with existing protocols to make 2,458 essential trips for our clients, totaling 7700 miles over 2458 hours. We hope to build on those numbers to meet the growing needs of our aging population.

Questions? Visit our Facebook page or contact Christina Robertson, Program Manager, 425-374-6360; Geraldine Atwater, Volunteer Transportation, 425-374-6336; or Gretchen Wooten, Volunteer Coordinator, 425-374-6323.

San Juan and Skagit Counties

CCS Farmworker Center, a resource for our Latinx/Indigenous agricultural communities, where volunteers help with classes and the Emergency Clothing Closet for children and adults.

Whatcom County

CCS Hope House Multi-Service Center in Bellingham give our neighbors in need food, clothing and other support throughout the year, thanks to a well-organized, committed cadre of volunteers who love what they do. Check out their lively Facebook page to learn what is needed from donors and volunteers on a regular basis.

If procuring, wrapping, and delivering presents is your thing, holiday giving is a BIG DEAL in every part of the Northwest region. For information, contact Annette Rice at 425-374-6318.

